

PUBLIC SAFETY FIELD TRIP

PHOTO PROVIDED

The 21st Century after school club in Kotzebue went on a field trip to the police station last week. Students learned what a police officer does at work and the tools they use and carry on their belt. Students had a chance to sit in the police car and see the lights flash and sirens blare.